Key Successes

Every child has accessed at least 2 hours of quality PE and Sport EVERY week

Attitudes to PE lessons have improved. All children take part and all have kit and are active throughout the lessons

Pupils have received a wide and varied menu of activities during school and after school including Athletics, Gymnastics, Judo, Golf, Tennis, Cricket, Basketball, Rounders, Cross Country, Football, Rugby, Fitness, Dance and Multi Sports Skills

Pupils who previously did not take part are now taking part every week and some attend clubs after school. Some show talent for activities.

Achieved Silver Active Mark

Visited by Olympic Athlete Tom Lancaster who provided training to pupils

Wide range of competitions for pupils

Pupils are fitter and healthier

Pupils have engaged with Change for Life Team and Health Agencies to improve lifestyle including Walking to School, healthy lunches and Rise and Shine

More children attend after school clubs for Sport and Cookery and Gardening
