About Me	I first worked at St Aidan's as a Learning Consultant with an education company ten years ago. I have been a governor for about 6 years. I felt something special about St Aidan's all those years ago and I still enjoy coming back to support as a governor. I play guitar (badly). I sing (badly). I read poems (beautifully). I would recommend Roald Dahl's Dirty Beasts, it's one of my favourites.

About Me	I am a new Governor at St Aidan's but the school is not new to me. I was a pupil and have happy memories of my time at the school. I remember the commitment and dedication of the teaching and support staff to create a safe and secure environment in which to learn and have fun. I see my role as a Foundation Governor as an opportunity to give back to the school. I have maintained my links with St Aidan's Parish and regularly attend mass at St Aidan's. I like hill walking but don't get as much time as I would like to do it. I enjoy listening to all kinds of music and reading thrillers and mysteries.

About Me	I am a teacher at the school and really love working here. I enjoy seeing children develop and becoming a better version of themselves; I get the most enjoyment from seeing the children in my class being proud of themselves and what they have learnt. I often tell them that the most important thing is to be happy and be willing to learn. Outside of school I am an avid football fan and attend every home game of my favourite football club. I enjoy running and I am currently training for a 10k run. My favourite thing to do is travel and explore new places. This is made better when I am accompanied by my wife and my dog, whom I enjoy walking every day.
