

MARCUS RASHFORD BOOK CLUB

BOOKS!

St. Aidan's have recently been sent 33 books from the Marcus Rashford book club. The book is called 'A Dinosaur Ate My Sister' by Pooja Puri, with illustrations by Allen Fatimaharan.

A personal message from Marcus states –

“Welcome to my book club. I’m so excited that you are able to join us.

I want you to take this book home tonight and write your name in the front because this book belongs to you and only you. It’s obviously fine to share with friends and siblings but only if YOU want to. Tell your friends that this is a gift from me to you because that’s exactly what it is. Escape into the story and find the joy in reading. If you’re struggling don’t be afraid to ask for help. We all need help along the way, me included. There is no rush to get to the end, enjoy every word at your own pace.

I’m so excited to hear what you think.”- Marcus Rashford MBE.

Magic Breakfast have been able to work with Macmillan publishing to secure these books for our children. They believe that when setting up good habits for life, a love of reading and a healthy breakfast feel like great foundations. A huge 'THANK YOU' to them for working with us to support these goals.

In September there will be a second book coming into school keep checking with your teachers to see what the book is and find out who will be getting a copy.
