

Learning and growing together, inspired with the love of Jesus.

A warm, welcome back to school and I hope you have all had a fantastic Christmas break. We start our new year with the return of Mrs Magill as our school SENCO, she will also be supporting different groups of pupils this term. I will be continuing in my role as Acting Headteacher until 31st March 2023 and I am very thankful for your constant support and kindness.

It has been a lovely, few days catching up with our pupils and staff finding out what they are looking forward to this Spring term. This term looks set to be yet another fun, creative and enjoyable time at St Aidan's.

Wishing you all a very happy new year and the very best for 2023,

Miss Doyle
